

IRP: Ukraine Protests

Thesis: Although brutal protests are affecting Ukraine's publicity, economy, and stability, the uprisings are also impacting neighboring nations, because these countries' offers of financial and government aid are leading to further conflicts.

When: 21 November 2013

Where: Kiev, Ukraine

Who: Ukraine protestors: radicals, everyday working people, nationalists, and Jews

Why: President of Ukraine (Viktor Yanukovych) did not sign EU treaty and instead sided with Russian Government to maintain allies in exchange for 15 billion dollars

What: Protests are occurring in the Capital(Kiev) and are spreading to the world

Now: American and Europeans are aiding Ukraine, and Russia has discontinued their agreement because of this.

